Old timers are predicting a very low river.

The Kilbourne candidacy is already on the rocks.

Falling to get the gubernatorial nomination in Iowa, Minister Conger has decided to return to China.

Buffalo wants ten million paid admissions to the exposition, but it is likely she would be satisfied with 9,999,999.

A Columbus preacher advises his male hearers to wear shirt waists during services for the sake of being cool and comfortable. The suggestion is practicable, but it is not original with the Columbus divine. Rev. A. J. Hawk of the Gilman Avenue M. E. Church, West Side, from the pulpit commended the practice two weeks ago.

A college for washerwomen has been opened in New York by the charity organization society. The course is twelve lessons and the students receive sixty cents a day and luncheon. Instructors teach the nature of the fabrics and the best method of cleansing them and exercise a strict supervision until the pupil receives a certificate.

Mr. Gorman's Future.

A Democratic triumph in Maryland is certain next November, and this virtually means that ex-Senator Gorman will be sent back to his former seat, as there is hardly any Democrat in Maryland who would have the temerity to enter the lists against him.

CASE AGAINST HOLLIS

Was Dismissed on the Motion of Attorney Wheeler.

Tuesday afternoon H. H. Hollis, proprietor of a saloon near the Fair Grounds, was arraigned in Squire Kidd's court to answer to the charge of selling on Sunday. The suit was instituted by Rev. Wright, representing the Anti-Saloon League, and the affidavit was sworn out by Rev. Virgil Boyer. The affidavit alleged that the crime was committed on Sunday, June 23. Attorney W. B. Wheeler represented the League and Messrs. Ellenwood and Guyton looked after the interests of the defendant.

The witnesses, George Hannold and W. B. Smith, were placed on the stand. Mr. Hannold stated that he resides across the street from the saloon. He identified Mr. Hollis as the man who conducts the business, but said he had no positive knowledge of his violating the law won the date named.

Mr. Smith said he was in the saloon and saw four other men there on June 23d, but he did not see Mr. Hollis.

At this juncture Attorney Wheeler asked for the dismissal of the case, which was done. It is said that he then left for his home at Cleveland.

A Severe Test of Christian Grace.

Ministers of the gospel are generally supposed to be thoughtful and considerate, and therefore capable of aiding the sick and guiding the wandering footsteps of the traveler over life's thorny road. But alas, while all this may be so when it comes to practical everyday affairs some of them are found to come far short of what was expected, and they degenerate into a source of worry and annoyance which would cause the most angelic of saints to fall from grace and use a few cuss words. In illustration of this it is only necessary to relate the exploit of the Rev. J. O. Frances, of Beverly.

In pursuance of his duty as a comforter and guide, he brought his wife down from Beverly and very carefully escorted her to Belpre, where he placed her on a safe and sure road to take her to her home in Alabama. But sad to relate, his concern for the welfare of his wife was so great that in attending to other little details of the journey, he utterly forgot to give her the ticket which he had procured for her, and the wife about whose comfort he had been so solicitous was compelled to leave the train at Athens and telegraph to stop the reverend gentleman and tell him to forward the ticket. If Mrs. Frances is not an angel it is easy to say what she thinks. However, it would not look well in print and therefore it is omitted.

Attention Sons of Veterans.

Company B, Seventh O. N. G. met in their drill hall in the city building last evening and decided that the Sons of Veterans would be very easy people to win a base ball game from. And in order to increase the glory of their good players, all the best were put on the team. The probable composition of B Company's team will be as follows: Sergeant Dyar, Capt. 1b; W. Campbell, 2b; Summer Benedict, 3b; Geo. Baum, ss; Fred Chamberlain, p; Fred Gerhart, c; Walter Leonard, cf; Clarence Campbell, lf; Theodore Folger rf. Subs, Ketter, Joy, Ansel and Wm. Chamberlain.

None of the above mentioned players in their long and distinguished careers have made an error. In fact the ball never touches the ground except when the other side is in the field.

The game will be played at the Patriotic picnic Thursday, July 18, at Buckeye-Eureka Park.

Common Pleas Court.

Ellenwood, Smith & Leeper filed a petition in Common Pleas court in which Mary Jane Tallott prays for a partition of the estate of Michael and Margaret Tallott, so that she may have her fourth of the estate set off if possible, from the land of the defendants, Thos. Tallott, Michael Tallott and Margaret Root, who reside at Montpelier, Blackford county, Indiana.

Will Rebuild Parkersburg Bridge.

The American Bridge Co. has erected an office and tool sheds at the Belpre end of the Parkersburg bridge preparatory to replacing the old iron work with new material. The old bridge has been unfit for modern railroad traffic for years. As few trains as possible will be run over the bridge while it is being repaired. The most trains will be sent by way of Midland City.

Mr. Manz, proprietor of the Flag Grocery, intends to add to his Flag Grocery, No. 2, 313 Greene, 5c and 10c tables, which will consist of notions glassware, queensware, granite ware, tinware, and many, many useful articles.

Sada's Trial.

The trial of Kaillie Sada, who is charged with being connected with the Diamond Pants Company robbery, is set for hearing in the court of Mayor Sykes at nine o'clock this morning.

Mason's Orchestra.

Dawes Camp Sons of Veterans has been so fortunate as to secure the services of Mason's orchestra for the Patriotic Picnic at Buckeye-Eureka Park Thursday, July 18th.

All arrangements for the event have been completed and a good time is assured. Let everybody go.

Lights Were Out.

During the storm Tuesday evening, lightning struck one of the city electric light wires and following it to the city electric plant. There it amused itself by tearing up things in general. The damage was soon repaired, however, and after an hour or so the lights were burning as brightly as ever.

Adeline Beasley.

In the seventieth year of her age Mrs. Adeline Beasley died Tuesday afternoon at the home of her son, H. A. Beasley. The remains will be taken to Amesville this morning for interment.

Dunham Township Man Hurt.

A serious and perhaps fatal accident happened in Dunham township, O., some miles above Belpre, on Monday.

A team drawing a threshing machine took fright and ran away and a man named Johnson was badly hurt, the threshing machine passing over him. At last report his physician entertained little hope of his recovery.

CANE RUSH

At Ohio Normal University Attended With Serious Results.

Special to the Leader.

Ada, O., July 16.—Commencement week at the Ohio Normal University at this place, was ushered in yesterday morning by the annual cane rush between the Juniors and Seniors. The trouble began early Sunday morning, when the Juniors began posting their bills for the annual "Senior Roast," which took place tonight at the White-side Theatre. A body of Seniors followed the posters, and began tearing down the bills, but were quickly compelled to retire. One of the Seniors was driven into his room at the home of Otto Collins, who was aroused by the disturbance and immediately appeared upon the scene with a revolver in hand and began firing into the crowd of students. Two of them, named Bowman and Davis, were slightly wounded.

Threats of lynching were freely indulged in, but cooler heads prevailed, and now all danger is thought to be over.

This morning the Seniors congregated on the campus during chapel, which all the Juniors attended. After chapel, a rush, in which 600 or 700 students joined, was made for the Seniors, to drive them off the campus. A general fight followed, in which canes and fists were freely used. A junior, named Watson, was severely injured early in the melee, by being struck in the stomach with a cane. E. W. Johnson was so severely injured about the head and neck that he had to be carried from the field. Many others suffered minor injuries, such as blackened eyes, bloody noses and broken fingers.

A number of the pharmacy students, who had made common cause with the Seniors, were severely handled, some of them being almost denuded. The Seniors were finally driven from the field, and the victorious Juniors celebrated their victory by invading the classrooms and carrying many of the professors out boldly and putting Junior colors on them. A procession was then formed, headed by a band, and the Juniors paraded the streets, with an unfortunate Senior, named Gregg, riding on a rail in their midst.

PRESS-POST

Controversy Has Been Referred to Judge Hidy.

By Associated Press.

Columbus, O., July 16.—The judges of the Common Pleas Court refused to hear a motion made by the attorneys for C. M. Jones, President of the Press Post Company, to set aside the receivership of the Press Post. The matter was referred to Judge Hidy, of Washington C. H., presiding judge of the district.

The action of the local judges is the result of a question of veracity between Jones and Judge Badger.
